The many friends of Mr. Henry Otto are pleased to see him filling his old position on the streetcar line.

Contractor Richard Dawson has the contract to erect a new three-story business block for Albert Zoellner at Portsmouth.

Mr. Isaac Huffman, section boss on the L. and N. for the past twenty years, left Monday for Ripley, where he has accepted a similar position with the Ohio River Road, working towards Aberdeen.

The funeral of Mr. Thomas Taylor Rees took place at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Rees, near Washington. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in Maysville Cemetery, beneath a blanket of rare and beautiful flowers.

Our stock of Cut Glass is larger than we care to carry at this season. In order to reduce this large stock we recognize the necessity of making it an object to prospective customers. Commencing today we make the greatest reduction ever offered. Call and look. No trouble to show you. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Yesterday Mr. John Beutler was given a home in the City Almshouse. For years he has stood at his chair and worked at his trade, that of a barber, when he was actually a fit subject for a sick bed. John is a nice, quiet, gentlemanly fellow, and of the hundreds of our citizens who know him not a single one will speak ill of him. THE LEDGER is hopeful that with the care and good treatment which will be accorded him in his present home he may be restored to health and usefulness once more.

This thing of stopping a carriage, wagon or other vehicle on the crossings is abominable and should be abated. Sidewalks and street crossings are constructed and intended for the exclusive accommodation of pedestrians; the street proper is for those on horseback and other conveyances. If there is not a city ordinance, making it an offense with a fine attached, Council should proceed without delay in remedying the matter by passing an ordinance making it a fine for a person to obstruct the crossing in such a manner as is herein mentioned.

FRISTO—SWEET.

Mr. William N. Fristo, aged 30, farmer, and Miss Mary T. Sweet, aged 21, both of Mason county, were married in this city yesterday.

BLACK—KIRK.

Mrs. Elenor Kirk of St. Louis and Mr. Roy Black of Lebanon, Mo., were married Monday in the World's Fair City.

Mrs. Black is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirk of this city, and was here on a visit last week.

This is Mrs. Black's second matrimonial venture.

WILLIAM C. BRADFORD.

William C. Bradford, whose serious illness from pneumonia has been mentioned, died Tuesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dola Cobb, on Kennedy's Creek.

He was a native of Ohio, born near Ellsberry, and was 80 years of age.

Mr. Bradford was a Veteran of the Civil War, serving in Company H, One Hundred and Eighty-second Ohio.

Surviving him are eleven children,—Jacob, Harrison and Moses of Aberdeen; W. D., Frank and Lewis of this place; Mrs. Clara Dunbar and Mrs. Lucinda Reeves of Indianapolis; Mrs. Belle Triplett of near Manchester; Mrs. Charlotte Reeder of Levan, O., and Mrs. Dola Cobb of Kennedy's Creek.

The remains were brought to the residence of his son, Mr. W. D. Bradford, Superintendent of the Maysville Cemetery, whence the funeral takes place at 2 p. m. today.

Rev. Mr. Lawwill of Aberdeen will conduct the services, and the interment will be in Bethlehem Church Cemetery near Slickaway.

WHAT SAY YOU, BOYS?

Suggestion to Restore Monument of the Late General Shafer

In his day, General N. Shafer was one of the most liberal citizens of Maysville.

He employed a number of men; and it is the testimony of all of those who survive that he was a just and generous "boss."

He died in 1874, and his grave was marked by a modest shaft.

Today that memorial is fallen—partially destroyed by a storm.

The old General left no relatives hereabout who will repair the damage.

THE LEDGER suggests that the Cigar Makers of the city "chip in" and have the shaft restored; and it will help the good cause along.

What say you, boys?

NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. Jack O'Connell Nearly Caught By Two Falling Trees

As an echo of the storm Monday evening may be mentioned the narrow escape of Mr. Jack O'Connell of the Northfork neighborhood.

He was proceeding along the Lexington pike, and when nearing his home, the storm in all its fury burst upon him.

There were two large trees on either side of the pike, one of which he approached under which he hoped to find shelter from the beating rain.

He had not taken many steps in the direction of the tree, when the monarch of the forest was caught in a cyclonic embrace and literally lifted out of the ground and hurled in his path, immediately across the pike. As he turned to flee from the danger besetting him in his front, the tree on the opposite side fell with a crash in his immediate rear, coming dangerously near catching him in its descent and crushing him to death.

It was a close call for Mr. O'Connell, and the peculiar sensation of the trying moments will not soon be forgotten by the gentleman.

A FAMOUS OLD SCHOOL

To Be Presided Over by Dr. Hinitt, Scholar and Gentleman

The election of Dr. Hinitt, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, to the Presidency of Central University, of which Center College is the academic department, has elicited a great deal of complimentary remark.

Dr. Hinitt must stand comparison with some very distinguished predecessors—not the least conspicuous of which was a native of this county—Dr. Ormond Beatty, a son of Judge Adam Beatty, one of our early Circuit Judges.

The new President (who was educated in English schools) will not discredit an institution which has been presided over in splendid succession by Chamberlain, Blackburn, Young, Green, Breckinridge, Beatty and Roberts,—scholars and gentlemen all.

The school will maintain the standards and methods, under the new President, which have given it usefulness and distinction in the past. In his recent address at Danville Dr. Hinitt said it was the peculiar mission of "Old Center" to send forth—not mere specialists, smatterers, poseurs or pedants, but thoroughly trained, all-around men,—men to take the responsibilities and discharge the duties of modern life.

Note the famous political leaders that have been trained in this old school: John C. Breckinridge, John M. Harlan, W. C. P. Breckinridge, Blackburn, McCreary, Crittenden, Vest, John Young Brown, and scores of other able and brilliant men.

Of whom did you purchase those delicious Strawberries and fresh, crisp Vegetables? Why, of J. C. Cablish, the up-to-date Grocer of the town, where you can find at all times everything pertaining to a first class grocery store. Well, I must say I never ate such in all my life. Very respectfully,

COX BUILDING.

AS A MATTER OF COURSE Many who deal with us once in a while buy goods away from your purchases elsewhere you do from us? Do you find elsewhere the little details so carefully looked after, such as coat sleeves and pants being exactly the proper length, and not bothered with returning goods to exchange on account of fit objections? No suit of clothes leaves our house unless we are completely satisfied with the fit. When we are, "you will be, too."

THIS WEEK WE PUT OUR CRASH COATS AND PANTS ON OUR COUNTERS! We have so large and elegant variety in this line that we cannot enumerate them in our ad. Come and see them. HAPPY is the fellow who doesn't butt against a set-up job; for then he will not yank hold of his left ear and lead himself out behind the barn to be kicked by a mule.

"UNCLE" BEN HOLT, whose age is quoted at 109, is ill at Burnside, this state; and yet it is not claimed that he was a pastry cook on the Mayflower, or even a personal friend of the late G. WASHINGTON.

ONE of GOVERNOR BRADLEY's staunchest enemies must have seen a great light. The Governor having "downed" this gentleman's henchmen in Louisville, he says he expects a 5,000 Republican majority in that city this fall.

THE generosity of Uncle Sam toward some of his office-holders is shown by the fact that his "Collector of the Port" at Galena, Ill., was last year paid $540.87 for collecting 70 cents! There are just 45 of these "Ports of Entry" where it costs all the way from $1.08 to $540.87 to collect each $1 received for duties. No wonder this is a billion dollar country!

THOMAS J. FITZGERALD, the Louisville Letter Carrier who borrowed $19,000 in four years, with a salary of only $1,000 a year to repay the loan, has been dismissed by the Washington authorities. He says he is undecided as to what business he will engage in, but will try to find something in which he can make a living. Well, what's the matter with continuing the borrowing business, at which he has certainly been a howling success?

YESTERDAY was most disagreeable; yet many ladies braved the weather for more than an hour, awaiting the arrival of a funeral party at the Cemetery. Isn't it about time somebody was making a move toward putting up a proper building for protection in such cases?

A most interesting weaver of political stories for The Washington Post and other papers is "Savoyard,"—EUGENE NEWMAN—a Kentuckian by birth and a Democrat by environment and belief. "Savoyard" is a GROVER CLEVELAND Democrat who refused to follow his party in its tortuous course during the last two National campaigns. He has recently taken heart again and is rejoicing with GROVER CLEVELAND and others over the party's prospect of returning to sanity. He had a sermon in The Post one morning last week in which he preached a reunited Democracy for everywhere except Kentucky. His stricture on Goebelism and his fiery dart at Congressman DAVE SMITH is one of the most severe criticisms yet penned on the subject, and fully bears out the Republicans in all that they have contended. He says—

"I think, however, the remark the Hon. DAVID HIGBACH SMITH made of the Cleveland interview is not only eminently pertinent, but eminently judicious. 'It will not,' says the Hon. SMITH, 'have a tendency to strengthen Judge PARKER in Kentucky. Mr. CLEVELAND is not in very high favor with Kentucky Democrats.'

"Indeed he is not! And as I am myself a Kentuckian, I will tell you the reason. Kentucky is powerless in the grasp of Goebelism. There is all the difference between Clevelandism and Goebelism as there is between despotism and liberty, or between right and wrong. Goebelism is bossdom in its most virulent form and contemptuousness of the rights of the people. It purged conventions of its opponents. It took from the people the right to hold their own elections. It put fraud in the ballot-box and politics in the Jury-box. It masqueraded in the ermine and made partisan judgments from the Bench. It reversed the election of the people and made the public records a notorious lie. It packed the box of the Legislature which contained the names from which were drawn the Committee of Contest, and, then, without shame and with a chuckle of triumph, it destroyed that evidence of its own infamy.

"I think Mr. SMITH is superlatively right—Clevelandism is not popular where Goebelism prevails. Clevelandism is Democracy; Goebelism is oligarchy."

"DO IT TODAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it TODAY, and let that remedy be Dr. Boesche's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure, as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale at Henry W. Ray's Postoffice Drugstore.

West Enders Seek the Law's Protection From Roving Bovines

Frank Williams of Plugtown is the possessor of two cows that are a pest to the residents of the West End.

The owner of these pernicious bovines has time and again been requested to in some manner restrain them in a propensity they have of getting on other people's premises and destroying property.

They can climb like a mountain goat and scale fences equal to a canine—at least that's what Mark Kehoe says.

The cows got into Congressman Kehoe's beautiful grounds the other day and made a wreck of the flower beds and shrubbery that adorn and beautify the magnificent terraces.

The matter is to be adjudicated this morning before Judge Whitaker, and it will be seen whether or not the West Enders are to be imposed upon as they have been by these two rantankerous cows and the owner thereof.

A FITTING TRIBUTE

A Citizen of Maysville Pays a Well-earned Tribute

The following public statement of a respected citizen adds one more emphatic indorsement of merit to the scores that have appeared before.

Mrs. Philip Fist of 129 East Fifth street says: "Our son used Doan's Kidney Pills sold at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, with great benefit. He was troubled with a disturbed condition of his kidneys for a long time, evidenced by back-ache, brick dust sediment in the secretions and a tendency to inflammation of the bladder. The use of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills proved them to act up to their presentations made for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
